Hood's Cures the People

The People Praise Hood's.

One great living fact is worth more than a hundred guesses. That Hood's Sarsaparilla cures is a fact-not a guess,-standing upon as firm a foundation as any fact in human experience.

If you are suffering from scrofula, eruptions, humor, pimples, inflammations or swellings, there are poisonous impurities in your blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla expels all impurities, enriches and vitalizes the blood and cures.

If you have rheumatism, dyspepsia or catarrh, there is trouble with your blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla corrects the trouble and cures.

If you suffer from any ailment that is caused or promoted by impure or deficient blood and wish to be cured, the natural and sensible thing for you to do is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be cured.

Never mind if some other preparation may do it. You want the medicine that does do it.

It is because Hood's Sarsaparilla cures the people that the people praise Hood's-over forty thousand testimonials in two years. Keep your eye on the fact that

Lawyer Lockwood Gets Summons for Tousey and Two Detectives -Also Seeking for

New York, Nov. 4,—Coroner Scholer, following an autopsy on the body of Mrs. Margaretta Todd, the rich woman who was found dead on the railroad tracks near Philadelphia a week ago, said yesterday that the woman could be a not possibly have been struck by train.

He said she could easily have been killed by some heavy weight falling on her while she was inert, or by the pressure of a knee. The autopsy showed that 10 ribs had been fractured, together with the breast bone. Her clothing, the coroner said, was not disarranged in the slightest, but was smooth and neat. Had a train struck her, the coroner said, the clothing, of course, would have been disarranged and torn.
